Found a Cure for Dyspepsia.

Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who has suffered quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion why not take these Tablets, get well and stay well? For sale by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, Ky.

Young Georgian took his girl to the theater. Curtain went up, play was on and then the girl grew faint. With a quickness of ratiocination truly amazing young fellow fished a tablet out of his pocket, hurriedly thrust it in his girl's lips and told her to tuck it under her tongue and let it stay there. She did so, it stayed and she sat. The show out in comparative comfort. As the tablet didn't melt she slipped it into her glove and took it home. It was a button.—Judge.

No Secret About It.

It is no secret that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Sore Eyes, Boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Texas. 25c at G. L. Penny's, Stanford, and Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, drug stores.

A Kentucky Governor was seen in the act of doing manual labor yesterday, but as he was breaking ground for the new Capitol, other officeholders will not walk out, although he violated union rules.—Louisville Times.

The Promoter—I find it very hard to float that stock.

The Broker—That's strange. It's been watered enough to float.

Henry Conrad, of Petersburg, Ind., is 72 years old and his wife has just presented him with twin boys.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

The saloon element at Corbin has won a victory, over the expressed will of the people at the polls, through the canvassing board. Of this the Corbin Laborer says: "The election held here on April 14th to ascertain whether or not liquor selling shall be licensed in Corbin proves to have been so much time and money spent in vain. The returning board has decided that the election was illegal. It may be, however, only a partial victory, as the anti-saloonsists have an appeal to the Circuit Court and the Court of Appeals. In the meantime liquor will be sold and license granted as if no election had been held."

A cablegram from St. Petersburg says the spirit of revolt is rising among the Russian troops in Manchuria, and that Gen. Linevitch has wired the Czar that a continuation of the war under the circumstances is impossible. Little hope for the Russians can be found in the latest dispatches regarding the naval battle. Only four of the vessels of Rojstvensky's fleet are known to have reached Vladivostok, the cruiser Almaz and the torpedo-boat destroyers Grozny, Bravi and Terosiahty. The full extent of the Russian casualties is not yet known. The Japanese losses as reported from Tokio, are only three torpedo boats sunk, three officers killed and about 200 men killed or disabled. It is definitely known that Vice Admiral Rojstvensky is captured.

Dying of Famine

Is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Cearfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at G. L. Penny's, Stanford, and Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, drug stores. Price 50c and $1 a bottle. Trial bottle free.

A setting hen is a regular louse machine in hot weather if not properly cared for at the beginning. You should first take a dry, clean box and saturate every inch of the inside with crude kerosene oil, bottom and sides, then put in your chaff or straw and lastly the eggs, then blow or sprinkle insect powder into the hen's feathers and put her on her nest at night, making sure your box is large enough, and the hen if not lousy when you set her will not breed lousy chickens.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by G. L. Penny, Stanford, and Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, drug stores. Price 50c.

Another convincing evidence of the increasing business in our city is shown by the act of the postmaster general, who has ordered a Sunday morning mail to be brought from Moreland to our city. These accommodations are only extended to points where business is increasing and prosperity prevails.

Stroude Gooch, in driving fast on the main street of McKinney, ran into the carriage of Squire Wm. Coffey, which was occupied by Mrs. Coffey, Mrs. Sam Montgomery and Mrs. J. Owens and baby. A wheel and a shaft were jerked off and the occupants thrown out and some were injured. Mrs. Owens thought her child killed, and fainted and did not regain consciousness for several hours, but under the care of Drs. Cook and Singleton 'tis hoped she will soon recover.

The commencement exercises of Hustonville Graded School, which were held in Alcorn's Opera House Monday evening were the most interesting and delightful of the season. The pupils performed their parts with the grace and dignity of those accustomed to such work, reflecting great credit upon themselves as well as their painstaking instructors. Each number was strongly applauded by an appreciative audience, which was not sparing in manifestations of deserved praise. The opera house was beautifully decorated in the class colors and from front to back was packed with friends and patrons of the school.

All went away feeling that it was good to have been there. The diplomas to the graduating class were delivered by the president of the board of education, Mr. Chas. Wheeler, who made an appropriate address. Many were the compliments on the classical thesis read by Miss Susan Frye and all agreed that it was most eloquently and gracefully delivered. At a late hour the exercises closed amid cheers from the large number of friends who had assembled for the occasion, which will be long remembered.
